

Please Be Aware...

You will see many illegal part-time jobs on social media. Getting paid for shopping is often a crime.

Here's the Rule

Don't do the shopping with someone else's credit card. That can include

- paying by your mobile phone
- shopping online

with someone else's credit card for someone else. Otherwise, you may be asked to come to a police station or even get arrested. Say no even if your friend asks you to do it.

Please Be Aware...

A residence card is an important document. You must not own, buy, make or use a fake residence card.

Here's the Rule

Don't own, buy, make or use a fake residence card. Otherwise, you may be asked to come to a police station or even get arrested.

Don't respond to messages on social media offering to sell or make a fake residence card.

Don't change your name or personal details on your residence card by yourself.

Please Be Aware...

You must not leave a store with items you have not paid for. You must not take lost or unattended items. These are crimes.

Here's the Rule

Don't

- steal items from a shop
- steal someone else's items
- help someone steal items or run away
- bring stolen items to somewhere.

Don't use an unattended bicycle.

Don't take a lost item. Bring it to the police.

Please Be Aware...

Some part-time jobs are illegal. Organized crime groups are looking for someone who does an easy and well-paid job. You could have already become involved in such groups without knowing if you take on such a job.

Here's the Rule

Don't

- get a package from an elderly person
- pick up a package from a locker
- receive someone else's package at someone else's room
- withdraw money with someone else's bank card.

These are crimes. Say no when you are offered such a job.

Please Be Aware...

There are some personal items like a bank card, mobile phone, health insurance card and student ID card that you must not sell, give or lend to someone else even if they belong to you. You must also not buy, get or borrow such items from someone else.

Here's the Rule

Don't sell or give

- a bank card or bank book
- a mobile phone with a SIM card to someone else. Otherwise, you and the other person may be asked to come to a police station or even get arrested. When you no longer need them or go home to your country, make sure to go to a bank or phone shop to make cancellation.

Don't lend your health insurance card or student ID card to anyone and don't borrow or use someone else's. Say no even if your friend asks you to do it.
